

Skin Tech →

First introduced at the Anti-Ageing Medicine World Congress 2013 in Monaco in April, Skin Tech has launched its anti-ageing cream, Atrofillin, in the UK. Designed to treat dry and fragile skin, the cream uses the technology of the brand's Blending Bleaching Cream to promote growth of adipose tissue and help produce a more even skin tone.

Trade price is £20. Call Euromedical Systems on 0845 130 4949

Jardins d'Eden ↘

New professional range Jardins d'Eden includes natural skin soaps and scrubs for both men and women. Products are handmade in London and each fits into one of four categories: detox, indulge, unwind and essentials. Products use a range of essential oils including rose absolute, geranium, ylang ylang, lavender and lemongrass.

RRPs from £8. Call Jardins d'Eden on 07849 361728

Zuca →

The Flyer is the latest addition to the Zuca range for the make-up artist on the go. It has been designed to be lightweight, fit comfortably in most overhead lockers and comes with an airline security-compliant transparent cosmetics case. The part carry-on, part organiser is equipped with a reinforced frame, doubling as a strong seat and includes five colour-coded, waterproof, removable, stackable pouches.

Price is £264. Call London Belle on 020 8090 4197

Eminence ↑

The Hungarian beauty brand has launched a range of Vita Booster Serums designed to help intensify the results of moisturisers or masks, allowing clients to customise and enhance their skincare routine in between salon visits. The four potent formulations feature active organic ingredients with powerful anti-ageing, calming, brightening and blemish-fighting properties.

Trade price is £18.18. Call The Skinsmith on 01527 834904